Promotion or not these races are a whole lot of fun and their abilities spice things up and are always welcome when making your own races. The new ship styles are really cool too. As I am not much for campaign it's more worth the money than the Snathi DLC, which I also enjoyed. Playing as the Mowlings is a lot of fun (and very cute).. The new races are solid additions to the game that make for a stranger galaxy. New ship designs and custom race traits are always welcome. I still miss some of the old GalCiv 2 races, but this is good content that stands on its own merit. With luck, maybe next year will bring Star Control
